This yearling buck was a class winner in Louisville in the young division. He's stout and square with stud-buck attributes. His full sister was Reserve Grand ewe in Iowa last summer for us.

53-Fitted Fall Yearling Ewe

S: NSF 2133 "Bougie"

D: Loenser Dorsets 1358

This ewe is a solid reminder of our reserve grand in Louisville in 24. She's a sound made one that has plenty of pieces to make a stud ram. Big footed, big racked, and big hipped. That's how we like our females around here.

54-Fitted Spring Yearling Ewe

S: Valley View 372 "Max Bid"

D: Wolkow

A waspy looking one that profiles very nicely. She's still a touch green holding her baby teeth yet. Put her in a junior showman's hand and you'll have a fun summer.

D: Spilde 9436 P-741632

We are very excited about this ram both in the way he is built and in his genetic potential! His mother, 9436 is emerging as a real star in our flock! She had our lead yearling ram last year who we have used and sold half interest to Donkers Dorsets. 9436 is also the mother of a top late fall ewe lamb this year. If that wasn't enough proof, check out Lot 60, Spilde 9788 who is a twin sister to this ram. We have always believed that a true stud ram comes from a true stud ewe and we believe this ram is the total package. We will have codon results for all of our entries before the sale.

As many of you already know, we purchased the entire Cedar Lane flock from Bill Keough last year. We got a tremendous set of lambs out of "Danny Boy" and Bill's ewes last fall. "Danny Boy" is twin brother to "Popper" and was reserve champion ram at the 2024 Ohio Dorset Sale selling for $5,000. This flashy young stud is the lead ram from that group. Cedar Lane 2235 is a "Replay" daughter. "Replay" was our pick of the fall rams at Reynolds Stock Farm in his 2020 crop.

Truly a special ram, and we are retaining his twin sister. We are so lucky to have found a true stud ewe in 3-20! She continues to make amazing offspring! This buck lamb is made about as good as we can make one. The Ohio sale is always the right place for the kind that likely shouldn't be sold at all. Enough said, watch for this one!

A yearling ewe that is tough to think of parting with! She is built like a stud ewe, has the look of a show ewe, and is bred like a champion. "Bottoms up" is sired by "Iron Mike" and is out of "Whiskey Talkin's" mother. Spilde 9431 is a top daughter of the infamous Spilde 9288 and sired by "Cruz". We are really excited to see this one in the show ring to see if she looks as good there as she does in our barn!

Her structure is as true as they come, she's big ribbed and maternal, her breed character is spot on, and she's elegant on the move! We always bring a keeper to this sale- here she is!!

We were blessed in 2025 with the deepest set of females born on our little farm yet! We held back 6 rams to feed out and boy do we love looking at that pen twice a day at chores time. It's hard to see any of them leave, but it's what makes this thing go round! 2536 has that PKF pattern we love and endorse. Her momma is a Bravo daughter and was the senior champion ewe at NAILE 2024. Her daddy was the high selling ram here last year. Be sure to check her out!

Her mother is Klampe 115 who is maternal 1/2 sib to the "Secret" Klampe 003 who was the Reserve Champion Ewe at NAILE in 2021. Klampe 115 was sired by "Rooster" who was Senior Champion Ram at NAILE. Solid, young slick buck. We picked his dad out of Obsessions buck pen and have been nothing but happy with his lambs to date. This buck's mom was our choice from Nichols to anchor the early stages of our slick program. This ram stood 3rd in class at the Illinois State Fair Junior show and 4th in class at the NAILE Open show last fall.

Super complete built buck lamb that stands on a big set of feet and legs. We knew we would like the lambs out of this Reynolds ram and he certainly didn't disappoint when crossed with this Doctors Orders daughter. Whether it's in show ring or the stud pen, we think this one will play.

This October buck lamb and his two sisters certainly have caught our eyes since day one. When you get them this well built, straight as a string, and flashy on the move, what's not to like? While we like him now, we think this one's best days are still in front of him.

The twin sister to 2536, and to say this pair has been fun to watch grow is an understatement. This ewe lamb has the bone, rib shape, and build we are all looking for and ties it together with a pretty feminine look. Her mom is a half sister to our first place late fall ewe lamb at NAILE last fall out of my Wolkow P809 ewe. Females from that family, usually don't leave our farm for good reason.

This ewe lamb's full sister was a pretty popular commodity at last year's sale, and we think this one follows right in her footsteps. Pretty fronted and as up-headed as they come, this one has show ewe written all over her. Her mom never misses for us, don't miss your opportunity to add a daughter that can do the same for you.

She may have been the last of this set of triplets to get tagged, but don't let that fool you, this ewe lamb might just be the best one. Pretty as a picture and as well built as we have ever made one, she's the kind everyone wants to have in their barn to look at every day. If we weren't trying to keep our fitted numbers in check, she wouldn't be leaving.
